

Waterline Studios Inc.

Northfield Stapleton Denver, Colorado

The re-development of the Stapleton Airport site included this life-style center and this art deco style water feature. The stainless steel cladding hides the supply pipes, nozzles and LED lighting which provides a festive display at night.

The fountain design allows the water effects to operate in moderate winds on the site.

