

Waterline Studios Inc.

- The swimming pool is stainless steel with a tile finish built on structure

Fairmont Princess Spa Scottsdale, Arizona USA

The swimming pool at the Princess spa was designed as a stainless steel shell on structure with a tile finish to the pool interior. A source water fall appears to originate from the pool and courses through the treatment spa courtyard providing an auditory experience to the spa patrons.

- The water course brackets the entry to the spa interior and treatment rooms.