

Waterline Studios Inc.

VALLEY MEDICAL CENTER

Renton, Washington

This water feature is sited in the footprint of an original fountain in the arrival court of the hospital designed by Edward Durell Stone. The courtyard was enclosed in a glass clearstory created to be a lobby and patient screening area and the fountain was designed using clear acrylic material to compliment the use of glass and to take advantage of the light and ambiance of the space.

